

Made2Own Hosting Privacy Policy

Made2Own Hosting policies and procedures for handling customer information have been created in order to demonstrate our firm commitment to maintaining your privacy. This document discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices for the www.made2own.com web site.

Made2Own Hosting is the sole owner of the information collected on this site. We will not sell, share or rent this information to others in ways different from what is disclosed in this statement. Made2Own Hosting will protect the confidentiality of its customers' information, account information and personal communications to the fullest extent possible and consistent with the law. To protect the loss, misuse, and alteration of information that is collected from customers, Made2Own Hosting has developed and implemented appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures.

To provide service to our customers, Made2Own Hosting acquires and stores customer communications and information that customers may regard as private or sensitive. Information such as the customer's name, address, and telephone number is provided to Made2Own Hosting by its customers in order to establish service. Credit card information is provided by Made2Own Hosting customers to our third party payment gateway system (or PayPal if you chose them) in order to establish and use our service(s). Other information such as the customer's account status, choice of services, and customer logs is created and maintained in the normal course of providing service. Made2Own Hosting collects information from our users at several different points:

We use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server, and to administer our web site and maintain aggregate statistics on the use of our site.

Cookies are used to help identify you and your orders, as well as the referring web site.

Our site uses an order form for customers to request information, products, and services. We collect visitor's contact information and our third party payment gateway (or PayPal if you chose them as the alternative payment gateway) collects financial information. Contact information from the order form is used to send information about our company to our customers. The customer's contact information is also used to communicate with the customer when necessary. Users may opt-out of receiving future notices or mailings by following the opt-out procedures; see the choice/opt-out section below. Financial information that is collected is used to bill the customer for products and services and is never distributed to other parties, unless specifically requested by the customer.

We run contests on our site in which we ask visitors for contact information. We use contact data from our contests to send users information about our company. The customer's contact information is also used to contact the visitor when necessary. Users may opt-out of receiving future notices or mailings; see the choice/opt-out section below.

This site makes chat rooms, forums, message boards, and/or news groups available to its users. Please remember that any information that is disclosed in these areas becomes public information and you should exercise caution when deciding to disclose your personal information.

Upon request, we may provide third-party services to you. Although we will, only at your request, sign you up for the Partner's services (and share your customer information with the Partner), we are not responsible for the privacy practices of such Partners, and you should review such Partners' privacy statements before having us sign you up for their services. This privacy statement applies solely to information collected by Made2Own Hosting.

In order to maintain the integrity and security of user data, it is often necessary for us to monitor all connections to our servers. While we take your privacy very seriously, we may disclose information about your account when Made2Own Hosting has a good faith belief that the law requires such disclosure, or to identify, make contact with, or bring legal action against someone who may be causing harm or interfering with the rights or property of Made2Own Hosting .

Choice/Opt-Out

Our site provides users the opportunity to opt-out of receiving communications from us, and our Partners.

Our users have the following options for removing their information from our database to not receive future communications or to no longer receive our service:

You may send a request via e-mail to support@made2own.com

If you have any questions about this privacy statement, the practices of this site, or your dealings with this web site, please open a trouble ticket through your customer account panel, and one of our customer care consultants will help resolve the problem as soon as possible.

Made2Own Hosting reserves the right to modify this policy at any time and without advance notice, effective upon making the modified provisions available on the Made2Own Hosting Web Site. You are responsible for regularly reviewing these documents, and continued use of the Made2Own Hosting Services after any such changes shall constitute your consent to such changes. Made2Own Hosting does not assume any obligation to notify you of any changes to the privacy policy.
